ABOUT ME

Hello, I am Kate Williamson-McCabe and I am Head Girl. I am currently studying Art, Drama and IT. I hope to pursue a career in the creative industry, possibly the film industry. I am researching courses in drama, costume/set design and animation at Ulster University. In my role as Head Girl I aim to make St. Patrick's an even more comfortable and accepting place than it is now. I also want to give all students more opportunities to express themselves and make sure they have an overall amazing experience!
